

MATRIX 2

Learning Strategies and Assessment Methods

Having set objectives to enhance academic learning in your service-learning course, Matrix 2 offers a panoramic view of next steps. To simplify completing this matrix, we have transformed each row of this grid to worksheets on the following page.

OBJECTIVES		STRATEGIES		ASSESSMENT
Categories of Goals for Enhancing Academic Learning	Specific Objectives can be knowledge, skills, or a value	Classroom Strategies	Student Assignments	Assessing Learning
Course-Specific Academic Learning
Generic Academic Learning
Learning How to Learn
Community Learning
Inter- and Intra-Personal Learning

Goal Categories for Purposeful Civic Learning

What categories of learning can strengthen students' civic learning?

This page describes categories of learning that directly and purposefully contribute to students' civic learning. While neither exhaustive nor completely distinct, seven categories of learning that contribute to civic learning are:

Academic Learning - learnings that are academic in nature that help students understand and be prepared for involvement in the community

Democratic Citizenship Learning - learnings related to being an active citizen that prepare students for involvement in the community

Diversity Learning - learnings related to multi-culturalism that prepare students for involvement in diverse communities

Political Learning - learnings related to the political arena that prepare students for involvement in the community

Leadership Learning - learnings about leadership issues that prepare students for community accomplishment

Inter- and Intra-Personal Learning - learnings about oneself and others that prepare students to work better with other citizens

Social Responsibility Learning - learnings that teach people about their personal and professional responsibility to others

Do others come to mind? If so, please do not hesitate to identify these as you proceed with this section of the workbook.
